Continue the Use of the Get Rid of It Strategy by using the definition, then rewriting the equation in ax + b = c format.

Solving Equations with Absolute Value

1. Isolate the absolute value
2. Set the positive and negative of the expression inside the absolute value signs equal to the number on the outside creating 2 equations
3. Solve the resulting equations in the $ax + b = c$ format