

Finding the Mean

One of your students was absent on the day of the test. The class average for 24 students was 75%. After the other student took the test, the mean increased to 76%, what did the last student make on the test?