

Area Polygons

A space that is 6 feet by 2 feet

Rather than calling that space 6 feet by 2 feet, we might also describe it by how many equally sized squares fit inside the polygon – we will call that the AREA of the polygon. Another example, 8 ft by 2 ft could be described as 32 sq ft

Area = # of equally sized squares – 32 squares – 32 square feet