

Example

A survey was taken of 650 university students. It was reported that 240 were taking math, 290 were taking biology, and 270 were enrolled in chemistry. Of those students, 80 were taking biology and math, 70 were taking math and chemistry, 60 were taking biology and chemistry, and 50 were taking all three classes. How many students took math only?

