Problem Solving

How to Solve It

1. Read the problem to determine the general type

2. Reread the problem Identifying what you are looking for

3. Reread the problem to determine what you need to know to find it – devise a plan

4. Reread the problem to determine what you know and apply appropriate math (operation, strategy, or formula)

5. Answer the question asked