

Commendation

Ms. Smith did an excellent job introducing factoring by first defining factoring, connected it to prime factorization learned in elementary school, and showed how will be used in factoring polynomials in higher level math courses. The schematic that she previewed on factoring provided students a great deal of insight on the 5 methods of factoring to be introduced in this unit.